NPIC/TDS/D-928-67 11 July 1967

i. It is requested that be granted TOP SECRET, T, KH, clearances. is currently serving as Senior Human Engineering to the MPIC Human Factors Program with His primary respon- lity is for the application of state-of-the-art knowledge to the fic Center interpretation environment. This research translation to be properly accomplished by requires the most inti- familiarity with MPIC operations as well as with the relevant tech- literature. To perform on this contract satisfactorily, requires much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the ty, quantity, and methods of collection of reconnaissance materials much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the much access to the Center as well as to documents which access to the much access to the center access to the center access to the center access to the center acce is currently serving as Sanior Human Engineering at on the MPIC Human Factors Program with His primary responsity is for the application of state-of-the-art knowledge to the Cic Center interpretation environment. This research translation to be properly accomplished by requires the most inti-camiliarity with MPIC operations as well as with the relevant tech-literature. 3. To perform on this contract satisfactorily, requires and access to the Canter as well as to documents which relate the by, quantity, and methods of collection of reconnaissance materials and by MPIC. It is, therefore, requested that these clearances be is currently serving as Senior Human Engineering at on the MPIC Human Factors Program with His primary responsity is for the application of state-of-the-art knowledge to the fie Center interpretation environment. This research translation to be properly accomplished by requires the most intifamiliarity with MPIC operations as well as with the relevant techniterature. To perform on this contract satisfactorily, requires and access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the by, quantity, and methods of collection of reconnaissance materials and by MFIC. It is, therefore, requested that these clearances be is currently serving as Sanior Human Engineering at on the MPIC Human Factors Program with His primary responity is for the application of state-of-the-art knowledge to the fie Center interpretation environment. This research translation to be properly accomplished by requires the most intifamiliarity with MPIC operations as well as with the relevant techniterature. 3. To perform on this contract satisfactorily, requires much access to the Canter as well as to documents which relate the ty, quantity, and methods of collection of reconnaissance materials and by MPIC. It is, therefore, requested that these clearances be st on the MPIC Human Factors Program with His primary respon- ity is for the application of state-of-the-art knowledge to the fic Center interpretation environment. This research translation to be properly accomplished by requires the most inti- familiarity with MPIC operations as well as with the relevant tech- literature. 3. To perform on this contract satisfactorily, requires nued access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the ty, quantity, and methods of collection of reconnaissance materials ad by MPIC. It is, therefore, requested that these clearances be This research translation to be properly accomplished by requires the most inti- familiarity with MPIC operations as well as with the relevant tech- literature. 3. To perform on this contract satisfactorily, requires and access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the ty, quantity, and methods of collection of reconnaissance materials and by MPIC. It is, therefore, requested that these clearances be requires the most inti- familiarity with MPIC operations as well as with the relevant tech- literature. 3. To perform on this contract satisfactorily, requires much access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the ty, quantity, and methods of collection of reconnaissance materials ad by MPIC. It is, therefore, requested that these clearances be nued access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the ty, quantity, and methods of collection of reconnaissance materials ad by NFIC. It is, therefore, requested that these clearances be nued access to the Center as well as to documents which relate the ty, quantity, and methods of collection of reconnaissance materials ad by NFIC. It is, therefore, requested that these clearances be Colonel, USAF Assistant for T chnical Development, NPIC
ments:
Executive Director, NPIC Date
ibution:
% i - Aidressee 1 - MPIC/SS 1 - HPIC/A/TD
3 - MPIC/TOS/DS
3 - MPIC/TOS/DS (11 Jul 67)